FIVE O'CLOCK SCORE.

	Miles.	Laps.
Gaudaur	110	7
Teemer	104	7
Plaisant	100	7
O'Connor	98	4
McKay	97	4
Argan	90	6
Bubear	92	5
Ross	83	1
Hamm	70	2
Conley	71	1
Lee	77	8

Wallace Ross, the "Black Brunswick," was the first to make a circuit of the track when the men were sent off on their journey at 2 o'clock.

Long-armed Albert Hamm was close at his wheel, and Langan, the Irish champion, in his flaring green suit, was third.

Conley ran on the track from the front of the scorers' stand and had George Lee for a partner for about a lap, when the New York boy glided past.

Ex-Champion Jack Gaudaur worked away at his machine with the regularity of a steam piston and left the lads behind him in great style.

As they started the Thirtieth Regiment Band struck up a lively air, and then the wheels went round at a truly astonishing rate.

The "Black Brunswick" covered the mile ahead of all, with Hamm second.

The order of positions at the start was reversed—that is to say, Ross, who started last at the opening of the race last night, was the first of to-day. The lad placed in the track near the Fourth avenue entrance was repaired just before the start to the satisfaction of the oarsmen.

O'Connor, the coming champion, was delayed by an injury to his machine and did not start until some time after his competitors.

Good-looking Billy East wandered about like a disconsolate wraith, his machine being in such a bad fix that it will take hours to repair it. The crowd began to pour in most as soon as the doors were opened and they crushed up to the rails and admired the brown-skinned athletes as they sped by.

Gaudaur has evidently got his machine "down fine" as the boys say, and his long, powerful strokes, if kept up, will land him ahead, for to-day at least, Teemer's great muscles rise and fall as he sends his frail-looking machine along. His long-looking face lights up when he sees a friend in the audience and then he spurs away serious looking again.

Fred Plaisant varies the monotony by rowing with one hand, and quietly guys his competitor as they go by.

It is curious how the habit of watching scores develops among the scullers. They are very much like the six-day pedestrians in this regard, and Chief Scorer Ed Plummer has to keep a sharp eye to his assistants to avoid the old-time Garden "kicks."

At 5 o'clock the score stood:
Gaudaur, 80 miles 2 laps; O'Connor, 75 miles 3 laps; Teemer, 70 miles 4 laps; Bubear, 75 miles 1 lap; McKay, 75 miles 1 lap; Plaisant, 77 miles 4 laps; Langan, 4 miles 6 laps; Ross, 61 miles 3 laps; Lee, 66 miles 3 laps; Conley, 68 miles 3 laps; Hamm, 61 miles 2 laps; East, 7 miles 7 laps.

The grand strains of "The Lost Chord" were the accompaniment to the second hour of their afternoon work, and Bubear smiled first as the cord on his machine slipped and he helplessly tumbled in the wheels. At once there was a burst of applause as Wallace Lee made a grand start and opened out a big gap between himself and Teemer.

The "Black Brunswick" can get more out of his machine than any of the men on a scull, and if it was not for his hard work he would in all probability be leading Jimmy Ten Eyck, that very young old man, who would have been No. 12 had

GIANTS PRAISED BY GOV. HILL.

He Sends Them a Letter of Congratulation on the Pennant Victory.

The Giants are mightily tickled over the following letter which they have received from Gov. Hill in reference to their fight for the baseball pennant:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, Oct. 8, 1888.

Charles D. Burman, Esq., Broadway and Thirtieth street, New York City.

Sir:—I have your letter of Oct. 1, and it gives me great satisfaction to send my hearty congratulations upon your victory. I have followed the contest for the League pennant through the summer, and it has been my good fortune to watch, in New York City and elsewhere, some of the best games which have been part of the season.

The Giants' team have taken the New York State motto for their own, "Excelsior," and they have determined to make their scores spread the motto the season through.

With best wishes to the club, individually and collectively, I remain very truly yours,

DAVID B. HILL.

Arrangements for the big benefit to be given the Giants at the Star Theatre on Sunday evening are all complete. Manager Burman has received the following from Congressman Cummings, who was invited to present the Giants with the pennant:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, U. S.,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8, 1888.

DEAR SIR:—I accept with sincere pleasure your invitation to present the pennant to the New York club on the evening of the 14th. Your very truly,

THE PROGRAMME OF THE ENTERTAINMENT will be as follows:

Sextet from Dockyard's miniature; recitation, Jeffery Hawley; solo, Mark Smith; specialty, Lew Dockyard; song, Laura Moore; baseball song, Dicky Bell; song, Laura Joyce Bell; "The Casey Lost" Game; De Wolf Hopper; recitation, Charles Reed; recitation, Maurice Barrymore; song, Eugene Odlin; specialty, Harry Kernell; song, John E. McWaters; Trio, not words, I am ready to meet you and again; 100 verses put up mid cheer and applause. He kept up the sport for several laps, and then left his old swing. If he keeps on at this gait he will cover over 800 miles before Sunday.

Every lap brought Teemer nearer to his 100-mile mark, and the lads fell behind in an astonishing manner. At 4.30 he reached 100 miles, just 5 miles and 3 laps behind Gaudaur.

STORY OF THE START.

A Great and Entirely Hostile Crowd Filled Madison Square Garden.

When the racers shortly after midnight, with swelling, puffing biceps, set their little machines spinning, there were fully eleven thousand people in the Garden.

They were ladies and gentlemen—such an audience, or rather, gathering, of spectators as one seldom sees at such an entertainment.

MANY WELL-KNOWN FACES.

In the great pavilion, in the private boxes, on the reserved seats, and among the walking throng who filled the central inclosure were seen the faces of Charles E. Rice, A. L. Le Mercier, ex-Senator Kirtman, James Lee, Dr. J. B. Stillwell, James Chico, Miss Emma Carney, Gus Heckler, J. E. Brennan, Charles S. Dixon, Sol Berliner, Marshall P. Wilder, Chancellor Olcott, Charles T. Davis, Addie Cora Reed, Charles T. Murray, S. C. Freeman, William B. Broe, of Pittsburgh; Ed. Harrigan, Mrs. Tony Hart, J. Ambrose Butler, of Buffalo; H. L. Ensign, T. B. Ecker, William Richardson, Col. David B. Austin, and staff of the Thirtieth Regiment, Brooklyn; Col. Bob. Ingersoll, Coroner Messemmer, E. F. Linton, of Brooklyn; Comptroller Myers, Henry E. Abbey, Mart Hanley, Sergt. F. D. Condit and Company K. of the Thirtieth Regiment; Marcus Mayer, Charles Chatterton, Duncan B. Harrison and A. C. Wheeler, of J. J. Brady, J. M. Monmon, Col. Tom Ochiltree and Commissioner Jacob Hess.

The great fair of the Anti-Poverty Society was concluded in the Garden at midnight on Saturday night and ere the people had fairly left the old building a corps of sixty-three carpenters, under the direction of Dr. Ed. Plummer, without whom no sporting event could go on, proceeded to make a lightning transformation in the Garden.

Booths where pretty Anti-Poverty maidens had beguiled the masculine heart into tenderness and wheedled dimes from young men's purses in exchange for bangles, rich only as cents, by degrees,

WINDING UP THE SEASON.

Pittsburg to-day.

Amos wants $10,000 for Williamson.

The Giants have won every series but that with Chicago.

The Giants can play but six more league games this season.

Jim Murrie has $10,000 in cash which says the Giants will win the world's championship.

The bridge-robbers are bidding well for second place, but those Athletic Quakers have a slight lead.

Mike Kelly, of Boston, telegraphed to Manager Murrie asking that the latter reserve him a box for the Giants' benefit.

Some slugging was indulged in Saturday at Cincinnati. The Reds made thirteen hits and the Louisville fourteen.

Byrne, of Brooklyn, two months ago, refused to make dates for games with the Giants. Now he is willing to play one game.

Humor has it that a William Habcock has sailed for Australia with a team of ball players. Spalding's advance agent is already there.

The Pittsburghers always joke the New Yorkers about the wet weather, the latter generally bring down the rain with them.

All this talk about Ward is mere guesswork. President Day will do as he pleases about granting Ward his release, and as yet Mr. Day has not said his pleasure.

Ward and Tiernan will not join the Australian team until the close of the world's championship. Amos will assume the management of both teams prior to Ward's arrival.

Von der Ahe says no world's championship game will be played in Boston because soiled, Conant & Co. want a fourth of all receipts of the game. What's the matter with playing one game in Chicago?

The question "What shall the Giants wear at their coming benefit?" is being much agitated. Uniforms are ordered to on the grounds that the affair is to occur on Sunday night. The same objection would hold against dress suits. The boys will probably decide the matter for themselves.

FRENZI'S PICNIC.

Winning the Battle Stakes from Kaloolah, Her Only Opponent.

Diablo Wins the Pelham Handicap After a Splendid Race.

Wynwood and Huntress Run a Dead Heat.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

JEROME PARK, Oct. 8.—A fair attendance saw the opening day's racing of the last week of the legitimate season in this State. The track was fair except in spots close to the rail.

Frenzi conceded Kaloolah twenty pounds in the second race, owners of the other entries wisely scratching. The betting was brisk horses to corn cobs on the Queen, and 50 to 1 to 100 to 1 could be got against the once great Morrisey mare. Frenzi was what in was an exercise center for her.

There was a splendid battle in the straight in the finish of the third race, the Pelham Handicap. Holiday led into the straight, Champagne Charlie and Diablo well up, Fresno coming with a rush on the outside, and Taylor bringing the Cyclone colt in strongly nearest the rails, Holiday had to give up.

After a hard fight, McLaughlin was cheered for hurrying the favorite, Diablo, through a winner, though only a neck in front of Fresno, who beat Mr. Withers' colt for the place by a half length.
